ANNOUNCEMENT

We are authorized to announce Harry Williamson as a candidate for Floterial Representative, from the Twenty-third district, composed of the counties of Carroll, Henry and Weakley.

We are authorized to announce Oliver C. Sloan as a candidate for the state senate from this district, composed of the counties of Carroll and Henry.

We are authorized to announce Joe H. McCall, of Westport, as a candidate for the state senate from this district, composed of the counties of Carroll and Henry.

ROOSEVELT'S GALL

In his speech at the Minnesota state fair, the greatest living political boss, and embodiment of boss rule in politics, declared that the nomination of Woodrow Wilson at Baltimore was arranged by the Democratic bosses.

Mr. Roosevelt is very reckless about the truth and has unlimited audacity. In this instance he appears to have selected an ultra example for the exercise of both qualities.

If there was ever a candidate who utterly rejected the machine men of his party and questionable financial aid, that man is Woodrow Wilson, and if ever there was a national convention in which these same elements found themselves without voice and were entirely renounced, it was that at Baltimore.

Before the convention Woodrow Wilson made point blank refusal to receive financial aid from Thomas Fortune Ryan. He didn't advertise the fact that he had done so; it came out through the resentment of his enemies. That was in very strong contrast with the charges brought and sustained concerning Mr. Roosevelt's campaign in 1904.

and that, there are good reasons to believe, concerning his recent campaign for the republican nomination. It also contrasts strongly with his present relations with George W. Perkins.

The Bryan resolution adopted by the Baltimore convention was the most daring, drastic and complete defiance of bosses and of the money power ever known in a political assembly. It was in accord with the Wilson sentiment in that body, and forced Wilson's nomination. All the world knows that. Roosevelt's affront in asserting the contrary is unparalleled. His "gall" has never been equalled and the truth is no impediment to its exercise.—Nashville Banner.

WHAT POOR ROADS COST

It is estimated by J. E. Pennybacker, Jr., secretary of the American Association for Highway Improvement, that $250,000,000 would be saved to the United States this year if the present record-breaking crop could be hauled to market over first-class roads.

At present only eight per cent of the highways of the United States are improved. Within a few years, Mr. Pennybacker says, he expects to see at least twenty per cent of the highways improved. The main highways of the nation make up about twenty per cent of the total highway mileage.

Mr. Pennybacker estimates that the $250,000,000 loss in hauling cost over bad roads would improve 50,000 miles of highway. Consequently, in five years 250,000 miles of highway, which is equal to the entire mileage of important main roads, could be put in good condition with the money lost through poor roads.—Tennessean and American.

AFTER McDOWELL

Gen. J. H. McDowell is being criticised by members of the various branches of the state for his active part he is taking in the new progressive party, and the alleged fact that he promised the progressive convention at Chicago that he would give the support of the confederates of Tennessee to that party. Mr. McDowell denies making any such promise, but the criticism goes on nevertheless.

Whether Mr. McDowell made the promise or did not it is not within his power to vote the confederate soldiers to any cause. They usually vote as they please, being too firm in their convictions to be swayed by any one man.

Frank Dibblell, the state comptroller, is also trying to play the old confederate soldier in his race for re-election to the office he now so unworthily holds. The regular democrats have all along acted as though the old confederate soldier was an asset that could be relied upon at all times, it made no difference how corrupt that faction might become.

The confederate soldier is a voter, and should be permitted to vote his honest convictions without being harassed by a lot of designing politicians who care nothing for him only as they may use him. Let the old soldier enjoy the remaining days of his life in peace and honor. He is entitled to this distinction.

INDEPENDENTS TO MEET

The meeting of the independent democrats to be held in Nashville, September 18, promises to be well attended. In fact it is claimed by some that it will be one of the largest, most enthusiastic and most important conventions ever held in Nashville. The object of the meeting is the reorganization of the independent democrats on a permanent basis. The independents practically disbanded for the purpose of bringing harmony into the party. The "regulars" encouraged by this act, instead of appreciating the situation and working to the same end, made a platform more offensive to the independents than anything that had been done before. So it became necessary for the fight to be renewed and this organization, we understand, is for that purpose.

One purpose of the organization will be to look after the legislative fight, to elect a legislature that will not repeal our temperance laws, our election laws and will not permit the election of M. R. Patterson to the United States senate. It is claimed that the independent sentiment has never been, at any time, so strong as now, and the determination to defeat Patterson for the senate is as strong as it was two years ago to defeat him for the governorship. If Patterson had kept out of this fight, and a whisky plank had not been put into the democratic platform, McMillin would have been easily elected, but the situation looks gloomy at this time.

The effort continues to be made to have the November primary pulled off. It is understood that the chairman of the state committee has been asked, by a majority of the committeemen, to call the committee together to consider the primary. We are glad to note that our committeeman, J. D. Heron, has joined in the request. The purpose of the meeting is to consider the postponing of the primary. The chairman is a warm personal friend and supporter of Patterson and may not call the committee together. It is generally understood that several members of the state committee and some of the electors on the presidential ticket are more concerned about the election of Ham Patterson to the United States senate than they are in the success of the state and national ticket.

What We Never Forget

according to science, are the things associated with our early home life, such as Bucklen's Arnica Salve, that mother or grandmother used to cure our burns, boils, scalds, sores, skin eruptions, cuts, sprains or bruises. Forty years of cures proves its merit! Unrivalled for piles, corns or old sores. Only 25c at Patrick Drug Company.

WILSON AND SMITH

Woodrow Wilson's courageous stand against James Smith shows the true metal of the democratic nominee. He is not afraid to stand for the right, and how to the line, no matter who stands in the way of the flying chips. The concluding paragraph of Governor Wilson's address to the people of New Jersey in respect to Smith's candidacy for the senate, shows the kind of courage the governor possesses and also the kind of principles for which he stands. The paragraph reads:

These are plain words, my fellow-citizens, but I cannot permit any reluctance on my part to speak in criticism of a fellow-citizen to stand even for a moment in the way of my duty as the leader of a party pledged to the people's interest and now under peculiar obligation to fulfill that pledge. If the democratic party does not keep its promises now it will never have another opportunity to do so. Mr. Smith could not and would not lend himself to any program of genuinely progressive legislation.

This is on a parity with Governor Wilson's refusal to accept campaign contributions from Thomas F. Ryan.

Smith entered the senatorial race in New Jersey for the patent purpose of embarrassing Gov. Wilson. The governor gives evidence of how he meets this manner of maneuver. There has not been for years a man like Woodrow Wilson in American politics in any party.—Nashville Banner.

Not every one that gets on a drunk in Nashville is allowed to go unmolested. A poor fellow sought the quietude of the cemetery to sleep off his booze. But he was found and so completely was he under the influence of Bacchus that it was thought he was dead. Failing to find any open grave from which he had emerged, a call was made for the police to come and take charge of a dead man. The officers came, and the magic word of "police" aroused the fellow and he was put in the wagon and carried to the police station. He was charged with being drunk in a public place.

The weather for the last two weeks has been the warmest experienced here in many years. The temperature played around the hundred mark many times. The crops were hurt, especially late corn, and cotton was no doubt damaged some. Cool places were very much in demand, though hard to find. In fact it was the longest spell of intensely hot weather we think we ever experienced.

The colonel will advocate the suffragette cause in California, but treat it with silence in Ohio.

COUNTY MEETING

W. C. T. U. Hold Interesting Meeting at McKenzie

The W. C. T. U., of Carroll county, held its eighth annual session at McKenzie on Friday, September 6, 1912.

The visiting delegates were met at the station by members of the local committee and were conveyed in carriages to the residence of Superintendent J. A. Robins, where they found the shady lawn furnished with comfortable seats. Here the day proceedings of the convention were held.

Nothing that could in any way add to the comfort and pleasure of those attending was omitted. A delicious two-course lunch was served on the lawn.

The evening session was held in the auditorium of the Presbyterian church. The three sessions were well attended, the work was successfully executed and great interest was manifested.

The presence and address of Mrs. Clements, of Dickson, added inspiration to the occasion.

McKenzie entertained royally, and all who attended were loud in their praise of the hospitality, kindness and courtesy extended. Testimony was borne to the efficiency of Mrs. J. B. Gilbert by her unanimous re-election to the office of county president. Mrs. J. A. Robins was chosen vice-president, Miss Eula McCoy, secretary, and Mrs. Florence Carter, treasurer.

A Good Beginning

The summer school has just closed at Cobb's school house, with splendid success. Had regular and full attendance most of the time, and the pupils did a great work out there this summer. They seemed to be very much enthused over the work and took a great interest in each and every recitation. We hope to do even better work during the winter term and hope to have regular attendance. We wish to have every patron have his children all ready to start to school when the winter term opens in the fall.

EULAH WILLIAMS, Teacher.

Mother of 18 Children

"I am the mother of eighteen children and have the praise of doing more work than any young woman in my town," writes Mrs. C. J. Martin, Boone Mill, Va. "I suffered for five years with stomach trouble and could not eat as much as a biscuit without suffering. I have taken three bottles of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and am now a well woman and weigh 168 pounds. I can eat anything I want to and as much as I want and feel better than I have at any time in ten years. I refer to anyone in Boone Mill or vicinity and they will vouch for what I say." Chamberlain's Tablets are for sale by all dealers.

School Notes

The adopted Reading Circle books for this school are as follows: Hough & Sedgwick's "Hygiene and Sanitation," Grim & Co., Atlanta, and Dinsmore's "The Teaching of Children," American Book Co., Cincinnati, Ohio. Each book is $1.00. Your county superintendent has a supply of these books in his office.

October 1 is Education Day in Carroll county, and is the leading feature of the Carroll County Fair on that date. Most prominent of the state's educators will be present—Superintendent Brister, ex-State Superintendent Myrders, High School Inspector Harned and a number of other noted school men and women. Come and bring well filled baskets.

D. T. BARNHILL,
County Superintendent.

Many Driven From Home

Every year, in many parts of the country, thousands are driven from their homes by coughs and lung diseases. Friends and business are left behind for other climates, but this is costly and not always sure. A better way—the way of multitudes—is to use Dr. King's New Discovery and cure yourself at home. Stay right there, with your friends, and take this safe medicine. Throat and lung troubles find quick relief and health returns. Its help in coughs, colds, grip, croup, whooping cough and sore lungs make it a positive blessing. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Patrick Drug Co.

Well, Gee Whiz!

Traded one of those places already! Hurrah for the Democrat as an Advertising Medium!

I have a fine farm in Arkansas, 30 miles east of Little Rock, in Lone Oak County, five miles from Carlisle. 152 acres, five room house, good barn, drilled well, wind mill, pump and tank for stock, 50 acres in good crops of cotton, corn and peas, 60 acres in meadow, three room tenant house, store house in yard, one and one-half acres of orchard, plenty timber for building purposes. Three creameries located at Carlisle, and cream route passes this farm every day, where you can sell your cream and get cash for it. Now this farm is for sale or trade at the small price of $4,000, one-third cash, balance five years at six per cent interest. Will trade for town property and land close to Huntingdon—give boot, take boot or swap even—now what do you say? Also 240 acres of good land in Wisconsin 30 miles from La Crosse. Practically a level, well improved farm. For trade for farm near Huntingdon.
